

Campbell Creek Trail

Start at Chuck Albrecht Softball Fields
End at Emerald Hills Park

The Campbell Creek Trail is a favorite for nature lovers and foodie enthusiasts. Popular access points with parking are Chuck Albrecht Softball Fields, University Lake Park, Campbell Creek Park, Taku Lake Park, and multiple businesses along the way. This greenbelt artery is perfect for biking or walking, with plenty of dining, breweries, and local retail stops on the trail or only a short distance away. Additionally, the surrounding neighborhoods have multiple entry points that are convenient for locals and visitors to enjoy the beautiful creek and trail. Make a day of it and travel the Campbell Creek Trail while embarking on side quests to local businesses, restaurants, and breweries.

Trail Recipe:

- 1 Start at Chuck Albrecht Softball Fields, 4781 Elmore Rd
- 2 1.2 mi to Campbell Creek Park, 2365 E 48th Ave
- 3 1.8 mi to Waldron Park Intersection
- 4 2.0 mi to Bancroft Park Bridge Intersection
- 5 2.6 mi to Old Seward Hwy Underpass
- 6 3.2 mi to Foxtree Park
- 7 4.1 mi to Taku Elementary Spur
- 8 4.5 mi to Taku Lake Park North
- 9 5.8 mi to Walter J. Hickel Pkwy
- 10 6.6 mi to Emerald Hills Park

Qin Cheghitnu

The Dena'ina place name for Campbell Creek, meaning crying ridge creek

