

Lanie Fleischer Chester Creek Trail

Start at Goose Lake Park / UMED,
End at the Coastal Trail

As you'd likely guess by its name, this trail winds along Chester Creek through a green belt that strings together neighborhoods. On the journey, you can visit several parks, some with small playgrounds, or in the case of Valley of the Moon Park, a large playground.

This trail also offers an extensive view of the always beautiful Margaret Eagan Sullivan Park and Westchester Lagoon, which attract shorebirds, songbirds, raptors, and everything in between. The lagoon is designated as an Important Bird Area (IBA), a global designation as critical bird habitat.

If you start or end your journey at University Lake Park, there are multiple trails that braid together, and it is easy to get turned around.

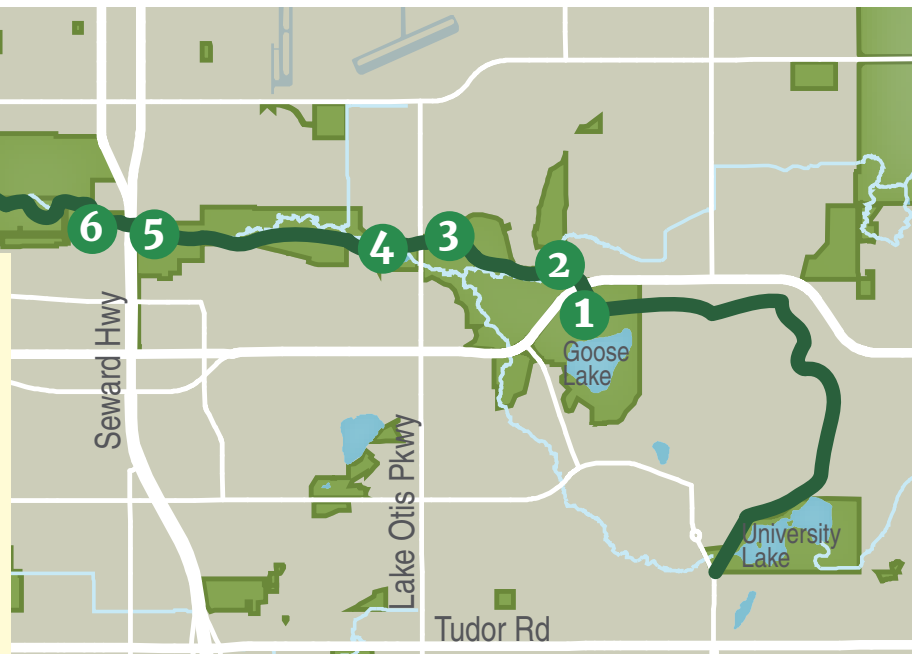

Trail Recipe:

- 1 Start at Goose Lake Park, 2811 UAA Dr
- 2 0.3 mi to Tikishla Park (across Northern Lights Blvd)
- 3 0.8 mi to Davenport Fields
- 4 1.2 mi to Hillstrand Pond and Playground
- 5 2.0 mi to Eastchester Park & Woodside Park Playground
- 6 2.3 mi to a fork in the trail to the Stadiums & Arenas
- 7 2.7 mi to Charles W. Smith Memorial Park
- 8 3.0 mi to Valley of the Moon Park
- 9 3.4 mi to Westchester Disc Golf parking
- 10 3.7 mi to Margaret Eagan Sullivan Park
- 11 3.9 mi to the Coastal Trail

Makes roughly 3.9 mi one way

Chanshtnu

The Dena'ina place name for Chester Creek, meaning
Grassy Creek

ANCHORAGE PARK FOUNDATION

